

Archon Gregory S. Thomas Appointed to Global Consortium of Entrepreneurship Centers

On July 6, 2021, Archon Gregory S Thomas of Beta Sigma Boulé, Springfield, Massachusetts, was appointed to the Executive Advisory Board of the Global Consortium of Entrepreneurship Centers to provide advice and leadership for the global organization. GCEC promotes best practice sharing throughout university entrepreneurship programs worldwide and networking amongst member institutions through engagement opportunities, including its annual conferences. Archon Thomas is the executive director and lecturer at the Berthiaume Center for Entrepreneurship University of Massachusetts Amherst.